

MIDWEST REGIONAL SPOTLIGHT TEAM

MRESC OPPORTUNITY SCHOOL TEAM

The MRESC Opportunity School is an alternative education program designed to provide those students who are at risk of not graduating from the home school a chance to recover credits. The Opportunity School provides tutoring, group and crisis counseling, career class, work study, and parenting courses.

The Opportunity School staff agrees working there is the most rewarding job ever. No two days are alike and every day presents a new challenge!

L to R Back Row: Helen Ward – 35 years in education – Grant Coordinator; Tabatha Schmiesing - Transition to Work Coordinator for Sidney City Schools; Hilary Davis – 2 years with the MRESC – Academic Advisor; Sybil Truster – 40 years in education – ESC Program Administrator

L to R Front Row: Tom Roll – 42 years in education – Site Administrator; Tom Clark – 16 years with the MRESC – Opportunity School Coordinator; Bill Hoewischer – 23 years in education – Teacher’s Assistant

Not pictured: Doug Barhorst – 35 years in education – Academic Advisor; Lynda Higgins – 1 year with the MRESC – Teacher’s Assistant; Bev Holthaus – 32 years in education – Grads Instructor; Greg Ward – 35 years in education – Career Class Instructor; Greg Johnson – 42 years in education – Data Processor; Gail Dafler – 20 years in education – Counselor